

Presents

10th Annual CELEBRATION OF GARDENS

Join us for a day of workshops, festivities, music & giveaways!

Saturday, November 3, 2018

9:30 AM – 3 PM *Coffee and Refreshments in morning. Lunch to be served.

Brooklyn Job Corps

585 Dekalb Avenue (At corner of Nostrand Avenue)

Brooklyn, NY 11205

G-Train to Nostrand Ave or B38 Bus via Dekalb Ave

WORKSHOPS

Learn
Share
Engage

Cooking with Fresh Garden Ingredients
Solidarity Economy 101
History of Urban Gardening in NYC
Nature Goals 2050

Special prize to the BQLT Community Garden Group that brings the most members.

All visitors and staff must present identification and comply with on-site security procedures.

RSVP by October 31, 2018.

Call: 718-963-7020 or e-mail: info@bqlt.org

10th Annual CELEBRATION OF GARDENS Program

Saturday, November 3, 2018

9:30 AM Registration, Coffee and Networking

10:00 AM President's Welcome, Awards & Acknowledgements

NOON Lunch & Entertainment

1 PM

Session A

Cooking with Fresh Garden Ingredients

Learn creative and tasty cooking tips for vegetables grown at BQLT gardens.
Presented by BQLT Gardener Enrique Ali

Session B

Nature Goals 2050

New York City Nature Goals 2050 (NYC2050) is a network of groups and organizations working locally and citywide for environmental action and justice. Learn more about nature-based solutions to culture, policy, and infrastructure and how to support.

Presented by Leila Mougoui Bakhtiari, Forest Management Analyst,
The Natural Areas Conservancy

2 PM Raffle & Networking

2:15 PM

Session C

History & Impact of Urban Gardening in NYC

BQLT and other urban Land Trusts are testaments to Self-Determination. Veteran garden organizers share their personal experience of building community gardens in NYC, and how land trusts impact maintaining our valuable communal spaces.

Session D

Moderated by BQLT Operations Committee Chair, Sawdayah Brownlee

Solidarity Economy 101

Learn how the Cooperative Economics Alliance of New York City (CEANYC) strengthens and expands community-led, democratically-controlled initiatives, thru overview of solidarity and cooperative enterprise principles and values, the landscape of such enterprise in NYC's neighborhoods.

Presented by Cooperative Economics Alliance of New York City (CEANYC)

3:15 PM Raffle & Giveaways

Sessions are subject to Change or Cancellation

